What Is the STAR Test? | Reference.com

The Standardized Test for the Assessment of Reading, or STAR, are standardized tests that are taken by students using a computer. There are also STAR tests for math and early literacy as well as reading. STAR testing can be used in grades 1 through 12 to monitor student reading and math achievement. The software scores the student immediately and produces printable reports for teachers and administrators. Teachers are then able to meet student learning needs using these results.
