The End of the World as We Know It by Iva-Marie Palmer

The Breakfast Club meets The War of the Worlds in The End of the World as We Know It, the latest release from Alloy Entertainment (The Vampire Diaries, Pretty Little Liars, 666 Park Avenue, Gossip Girl) They wanted to party like it was their last night on earth. They just might get their wish.

The End of the World as We Know It by Lesley Choyce

The End of the World As We Know It was just a hassle to read. The main characters are completely unrelatable and unlikeable; Carson himself thinks the whole world revolves around him and he's really whiny and selfish. He has nothing to be unhappy about yet he rambles on and on judging everyone and everything around him. His parents are eco-freaks and much of the novel is crammed with
